

Unemployed in Germany?

It's the right time for the next step in your career!

If you are currently unemployed and registered in Germany, you could qualify for an education voucher (Bildungsgutschein) that will allow you to attend our Full Stack Web Development course for free.

What you'll need to do:

1. Consult with your local Agentur für Arbeit (JobCenter) and explain your motivation to take our program and become a web developer.

Give them our certification number/ Maßnahmenummer: 962/340/2022 .

If you prefer to study remotely, the certification number/

Maßnahmenummer for the remote program is : 962/340/2022 .

If you wish to study on-campus in Berlin, the certification number/

Maßnahmenummer is: 962/475/2022

Your JobCenter agent/consultant can look up our course information in their system using this identification number. Also, take our Brochure with you to the Job Center to provide detailed information about Wild Code School and our Web Development program.

2. Submit your application to our Full Stack Web Development program (remote or on-campus in Berlin) and go through the admissions process to get your study spot in the program.

3. Once approved by the JobCenter, mail or bring in your Bildungsgutschein to Wild Code School for our signature and stamp.

4. Return your signed and stamped Bildungsgutschein to your contact at the Job Center.
